The Operation of the Ministry of Reconciliation

1. Let humanity know that they have been fully reconciled back to God through the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ (Romans 5:10, 2 Corinthians 5:19).
2. Allow them to respond to this truth so that they can be reconciled in their own minds (Colossians 1:21, 2 Corinthians 5:20-21). Focus on who is ready to live in union with Him right now as opposed to who prays a prayer before they die. This is the essence of harvest.
3. If they reject, bless them and let your words to them remain full of grace (Colossians 4:5-6). Do not relent on their inclusion. If they respond to reconciliation, add them to the church and lay hands on them for total Spirit immersion and whackage. Immediately teach them of their sonship, new creation and union with Jesus Christ. They are now participators in the perfect, unbroken fellowship between the Father and the Son, through the Spirit.
